3. Terms of Representation

3.1 The Client understands that he or she is retaining the Law Firm, an organization consisting of a number of attorneys, law clerks, paralegals, and support staff, all of whom function as an integrated team for the purpose of providing the most effective legal representation.

3.2 The client understands that no one particular member of the Law Firm is being retained, but rather, the Law Firm, as an entity is undertaking legal representation of The Client pursuant to this agreement, and that the Law Firm reserves the right to assign and delegate all aspects of such representation to individual members of the Law Firm, as the Law Firm, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate.

3.8 The Law Firm will keep the Client informed of any updates regarding the status of the Client's case that the Law Firm is directly informed of. The Law Firm will notify the Client by email or by use of the Citizenship Selfie Messaging Feature. 3.10 The Client understands that, if they wish to contact the Law Firm by phone, the time that the Law Firm spends discussing the Client's matter by phone will be subject to an additional fee set forth herein.

3.11 The Client also understands that he or she may discharge the Law Firm at any time.

4. Payment of Fee

4.1 In order for us to begin our representation you have agreed to pay us and we have agreed to accept a retainer payment of $199.00.

4.2 $199.00 represents the entirety of the amount due for services rendered under this agreement.

4.3 The Client agrees to pay the Law Firm the above minimum fee to secure the availability of the Law Firm relative to the matter described above.

The Client understands that the Law Firm is not obligated to render any services until this minimum fee is paid in full.

4.4 The Client agrees to pay for any additional services of the Law Firm in accordance with the following schedule of rates:

$100.00 per 20 minutes

4.5 The client further understands that the hourly rates apply to all time expended relative to The Client's matter, including but not limited to, office meetings and conferences, telephone calls and conferences, either placed by or placed to the Client, or otherwise made or had on the Client's behalf or related to the Client's matter, preparation, review and revision of correspondence, pleadings, motions, disclosure demands and responses, affidavits and affirmations, or any other documents, memoranda, or papers relative to The Client's matter, legal research, court appearances, conferences, file review, preparation time, travel time, and any other time expended on behalf of or in connection with The Client's matter

4.6 A minimum of 1/3 of an hour is applied to all additional telephone call time charges and a minimum time charge of 1/2 hour is applied to all office meetings and conferences, irrespective of the actual time expended with respect thereto, unless the actual time expended exceeds the minimum, in which event the Client will be charged for the actual time expended.

4.7 The rates set forth in this agreement will remain in effect throughout the period of the Law Firm's representation of the Client for the matter set forth in this agreement, unless changed by mutual consent of the Law Firm and the Client, in which event any modification of the hourly rates shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Law Firm and the Client.

4.10 The Client understands that the above listed amount paid is only for the services to be rendered as set forth in this agreement and that it does not include the filing fees prescribed by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services which are to be paid separately.

4.11 At its discretion, Company may offer discounts or bonuses, through a special offer on its website or by email or any other means of advertising and promotion. As long as the special offer remains valid, the terms of any such offer will take precedence over this Agreement or the Company's standard prices, in the event of a conflict.

5. Withdrawal of Representation and Termination

5.1 You are advised that if the Law Firm decides that there has been an irretrievable breakdown in the attorney-client relationship, action is pending that we are to be relieved as your legal representatives. In such event, you will be provided with notice of our withdrawal. Should any fees be due and owing to the Law Firm at the time of our discharge, we shall have the right, in addition to any other remedy, to seek a charging lien.

5.2 In the event that the Client fails or refuses to follow the advice or instructions of the Law Firm in any respect, the Client agrees that such failure or refusal shall be good cause for the Law Firm to withdraw its representation and the Client hereby consents that the Law Firm may so withdraw under such circumstances.

5.3 This agreement will terminate naturally when the services set forth above and agreed hereto have been rendered by the Law Firm.

6. Security Interest

6.1 In the event that the Client does not pay any balance due to the Law Firm within the time periods stated in this agreement, the Law Firm may, at its option and as an accommodation to the Client, agree to continue representation of the Client if the Client gives the Law Firm a security interest to protect the Law Firm's right to be paid. That security interest might take the form of a confession of judgment, or a mortgage upon specified property. The result of either such security interest would be that a lien would attach to the Client's property and operate in favor of the Law Firm. If the security interest is a mortgage on the marital residence, such security interest shall be nonforeclosable; in other words, the Law Firm could not and would not force the sale of the marital home but, instead, would wait to be paid when the home is sold. In any event, however, the Client understands that any such security interest can be granted to the Law Firm only with the permission of the court upon proper application and on due notice to the opposing party.

7. Fee Disputes

7.1 In the event of a fee dispute, the Client has the right to seek arbitration, which is binding upon both the Law Firm and the Client. Should the Client wish to seek such arbitration, The Client should notify the Law Firm of that fact, in writing, and the Law Firm will provide the Client with the information required to file for such arbitration. The Client understands that any decision which results from such arbitration is binding on both parties.

7.2 In such event of a fee dispute NY CRR §137.0, et seq., New York's fee dispute resolution program, shall govern.

8. Other Provisions
